FROM OUR INSTITUTIONS

ST JOSEPH'S, CALICUT

The Community, the staff and the students were deeply saddened and mourned the tragic demise of Fr Thadeyoo's younger brother and his companions. Frs. Xavier, Anto and two of our staff members visited the mourning family members and took part in the Requiem Mass held at St Jude's Church, Chinnathura. After the summer vacation a vibrant and busy academic schedule started at both the Junior and Senior School. Mr. Biju Augustine (PT), Ms. Ancy Joseph (UPSA) and Mr. Emil Thomas (Office) have joined the school as new staff members. The Senior School honored its meritorious students who passed the SSLC and Plus Two with higher grades. Rt Rev. Dr. Joseph Kalathiparambil, the guest of honor of the function, gave away the prizes. The Environmental Day was observed with the distribution of plant saplings to students and a rally to create awareness on Environmental Protection. Dr. Roshan Bijili, a leading psychiatrist and an alumnus of our school inaugurated the various Club activities in the school. The admission process to the Plus One section is completed and the classes are in full swing. Fr Henry guided the PTA meeting of the Junior School and gave them a talk. Fr Xavier is busy with getting an NOC from the State Government to apply for the recognition of the Junior School by the ICSE. The candidates are back from their summer vacation and are busy with their studies.

SARVODAYA, EACHOME

Fr Sony Thomas has taken charge as Superior of the community. We are deeply grateful to Fr Kuriakose for all he has done for the Community, Farm and School over the last six years. He has made a significant difference to life here and will be sorely missed. We also gratefully acknowledge the presence of Fr Sabu Malayil here for a year and wish him all the best for his new assignment at IRC, Pariyaram. We miss the presence of Sch. Raju, who has moved on to Theology at Vidya Jyothi, Delhi. The seed club at the school, in particular, will not be the same now that he is gone! Salvin has rejoined the community and school after a four-year leave. Fr Baby, our charismatic and tireless Manager, is toiling hard for Sarvodaya. He explained to the staff the vision and mission of a Jesuit school on the opening day. His efforts have been widely appreciated and supported. The academic year started with plenty of changes and new initiatives in the school. Fr Wilson has been appointed the Assistant Headmaster and Director of the school while Fr Salvin has been appointed Director of the LP section.

Fr Henry visited the school for three days and met all the staff individually. At the end of his visit, he gave an orientation to the staff. His presence was highly appreciated.

Sch. Kensy is with us for a month and is actively present in the school, teaching English grammar and songs to the students. He was the Chief Guest at the inaugural function of the school club activities and he exhorted the students and teachers to appreciate and make the best of their Jesuit education. Schs Roy and Deepak gave an orientation programme to the 10th standard students. We Notice a remarkable change in our students who attended the programme. Fr Sony, our Superior, has successfully completed the MBA exams.

RTC/SAMEEKSHA

The new academic year of the RTC began on the 4 June. The academic atmosphere gathered further boost by the presence of five first year theologians who spent a month before leaving for Vidya Jyoti, Delhi. They attended along with us a course on 'Kerala culture and Malayalam literature' and were given an orientation to theology. We warmly welcome Fr Binoy Pichalakkatt, who is back home after participating in a Summer School Conference in Vatican.

The Sameeksha-RTC community bade farewell to Fr Tom Panikulam who served us as superior for seven years. All of us enjoyed his brotherly care and concern and at this juncture we wish him all success in his new endeavors. Meanwhile, we are also happy to welcome Fr P.T Mathew as our new superior and offer him our prayerful support. We thank Fr Mathew for his priceless service as the director of studies and welcome Fr Henry Pattarumadathil as the new Director of studies in RTC.

Two inter-religious dialogue seminars were conducted in Sameeksha on Sahaja-marga and on the Hindu Swaraj of Gandhi. Sameeksha also offered two life orientation programs for youth.

Frs. Sebastian Painadath, Roy Thottathil, Henry Pattarumadathil and Sch. Raju organized a meditation course at Sameeksha for the aspirants of various religious congregations.

Frs. P T Mathew and Henry Pattarumadathil participated in the KCBC colloquium with theologians held at POC, Kochi. Fr Henry delivered the keynote address at the convention of the catechism teachers of Verapoly diocese. He also spoke on priesthood to the Jacobite priests of Angamaly diocese, conducted an orientation program for the teachers of Sarvodaya School, Eachome and for the parents of St. Joseph's Junior school, Calicut. He joined schs. Ranjith and Aneesh in conducting a training program for the executives of AICUF - Ernakulam zone and a seminar for the unorganized youth in Aleppey. Schs. Dollichan and Ramlat conducted an orientation program for the altar boys and girls of Kalady parish. Many of ours also conducted orientation programs for the students of neighboring schools.

AKJM, KANJIRAPALLY

The school re opened after the summer holidays on 1 June. The admissions have gone up and we have a few new faces among the staff as well. Classes commenced for the +1 on 14 June. The Smart Class Room has been introduced and now we have five classrooms complete with e-board, computer, overhead projector and audio systems—all coordinated by a server from the control room. The Awards Day was presided over by Prof. Ruble Raj, Principal, Marian College, Kuttikanam. Fr Jacob Madukakuzhy left for his new assignment in SICJ, Trivandrum, and was accorded an affectionate sendoff. And we are awaiting the return of Fr Thomas Anthraper who is away at Kozhikode for a cardiac checkup. It is heartening to note that doctors have ruled out anything serious.

LOYOLA, ALUVA

June brought several joyous moments to Loyola. Ten of our Pre Novices (2009 -10 batch) joined the novitiate—7at Nashik and 3 at Guntur. This is the second highest number in the recent history of our Province. Our prayers and best wishes are with these young men, as they generously and yet a little nervously, begin to row their boats to deeper waters. The new batch of Pre Novices arrived on 8 June. As of now there are 15 of them, hailing from 9 dioceses. Fr Baby Mullooparambil, our ever enthusiastic Vocation Promoter, was here to receive them and to initiate them into the ways of Loyola. Then the trio of Sajit, Santhosh and Augustine gave them a three-day orientation programme. Later in the month three stalwarts from our theologate, Deacons Dolichan and Ranjith and Sch Sanil graciously offered their experience and expertise to help them improve their self esteem. With all these the Pre-Novices are slowly getting acclimatized to the dynamics of a new and different life style.

Sch Santhosh, even as he is making hectic preparations for his new assignment, generously offers his services to the community. Santhosh has been indeed a gracious presence, a special gift of the Lord, to Loyola for more than a year. Now as he is getting ready to navigate in unfamiliar waters, our prayers and wishes are with him.

Sch Augustine Peedikamala, our new regent, rushed back from Indraprastha as soon as his exams got over to start his new assignment. Now he seems to be in full command of all he surveys at Loyola.

LUMEN/JYOTHIS, KOCHI

An exhibition of some selected paintings of Fr Roy is getting the attraction of many lovers of art in Germany. Five city churches host the exhibition in five weeks and it is reported that there is wide appeal and enthusiastic response at every spot. Along with the paintings there are picture cards and posters of the paintings for sale. The exhibition is organized by a family interested in Roy's paintings in collaboration with the Procurator of Jesuit Missions in Germany. Most of the paintings are sold out. Congrats Fr Roy!

Newman Association had a heated discussion on "National Highway Development in Kerala: Problems and Prospects." Mr. T.K. Jose, IAS, Mr. P.C. Cyriac and Dr. Josh Therattil were the main panelists. In the discussion that followed, some activists and organizations who opposed the idea of widening the highways in Kerala to 45 meters also presented their views. It was observed that the obsolete Land Acquisition Act of 1948 is to be redefined ensuring instant, adequate and easy compensation for those who sacrifice their land for development.

Snehasena has come out with new and attractive programmes for children. There are hundreds of participants in various competitions launched in the magazine. The director is also busy with orientation programmes for children, parents and teachers in various schools.

Vincent

LOYOLA, TRIVANDRUM

Loyola is back to its normal life after the summer vacation. A one day seminar was conducted for the Loyola School teachers by Fr Nobert Menezes the JEA Secretary on 24 June. A new venture was started at our school as it began a batch of ISC Humanities with Mathematics, Economics and Political Science as subjects. Once again Loyola College of Social Sciences proved its worth by grabbing fifth place among the best Social Work Colleges in India in the Outlook-MDRA survey. Last year we were only at 14th position. Recently doctorates were conferred upon Mr Sunil, Librarian and Ms. Elizabeth, HOD Sociology. LES conducted a State Level Training programme for the CDPOs in two batches as part of Counselling Training and Monitoring programme. CHILDLINE Trivandrum observed Anti Child Labour Day by a vehicle rally which started from LES and covered the whole district of Trivandrum.

ST XAVIER'S COLLEGE, THUMBA

The Community welcomed Fr E.J Thomas and Sch. Prince as its new members. Bishop Soosa Packiam has appointed Fr E. J Thomas the Spiritual Father of the seminarians at St. Vincent's Seminary. Besides his responsibilities in the College, Fr Dasappan has been appointed parish priest of Fathimapuram church. Fr Pulikodan is weaker in appearance, but still he keeps his spirit high and frequents his way to the chapel, refectory and to the library. The college reopened on 2 June. The first year admissions are almost over and the classes commenced by the middle of the month. Kerala University has streamlined all the regular courses in the Colleges to the "Choice Based Credit and Semester system (CBCS)" this year onwards where one of the prominent features will be the assessment of students by the grading system. at XIM, the final year MBA examinations are on. Admissions for the third batch of MBA have been started. 1st B.Com classes began on 28th June with 68 students.

Prince

SNEHARAM-ANJENGO

Students are back at sneharam after a month of holidays. Sch. Bastin has joined Fr Anto and the whole team is working well for the betterment of this institution. This year we have around 270 students and seven teachers. All the students are very keen to improve their academic performance as well as extra curricular activities. Most of the students are very much interested in cultivation and looking after the field. We have formed a group called 'eco-friends' in the campus. The parishioners are celebrating their main feast of St Peter. Fr Anto celebrated solemn Mass with a new tune that he has composed, which is well appreciated. A big function was organized for the remembrance of Fr Antony Manipadam who is the pioneer of this institution. Three priests who studied here participated in the function and they shared their experiences. They promised that they would sponsor scholarships for the students who get high marks in SSLC examination. Fr Anto has compiled a book which comprises all the prayers in the Latin liturgy and for the administration of sacraments. Obviously this is only for private circulation and those who would like to have it please contact him.

ANANDA JYOTI, GUNTUR

Ananda Jyoti has a new Socius, Fr Leo. June 21 was a great day for nine second years who pronounced their First Vows. Fr C.J. Joseph inspired us with his presence and a lively homily. We welcomed the first year Novices and they completed the first probation on 5 July. The staff community of the Novitiate had an animation programme guided by Fr Stanley.

Lijo

ASHA KIRAN, MANGALORE

We, Adhul and Sharath happen to be the pioneers of our Province to join this community of scholastics to do college studies in St Aloysius College, Mangalore. We joined this Community on 7 June. It consists of two Fathers, one Brother and thirty three scholastics from ten provinces of which sixteen are first years. The classes are in full swing and the autonomous system of St Aloysius provides ample opportunities for excellence in academics and co-curricular activities. The Feast of St Aloysius Gonzaga was celebrated with much fanfare at the College. The celebrations began with a solemn Mass. The melodious choir added beauty to the celebrations.

Sharath

SATYA NILAYAM, CHENNAI

A cool weather welcomed the philosophers to begin the new academic year which began with the Triduum. The orientation programme with the theme, 'skeptomai' which means 'I consider it carefully,' was a good way to get to know one another. Fr Rector welcomed the first year philosophers during the inaugural day celebration. The Auxiliary Bishop of Madras–Mylapore, Dr Lawrence Pius, was the chief guest of the day who gave the keynote address. He spoke on the importance of learning philosophy in priestly formation. The talk was well appreciated by the philosophers and the faculty. During the interactive session Bishop Lawrence inspired us by narrating his own personal experience as a teacher of Philosophy in Sacred Heart Seminary, Poonamalle.

This year we have two philosophers from East African province of the Society. They pronounced their first vows here at Satya Nilayam and Fr K. Amal, Rector of Loyola College, received the vows. Many Jesuits from different African Provinces gathered here for the function.

Many of the philosophers were hospitalized due to a contagious viral fever and as a result the chapel and class rooms were half filled for many days. We have started the social, pastoral and educational apostolates under the able guidance of Fr Lawrence Fernandes.

Shibin

DE NOBILI COLLEGE, PUNE

The new academic year in DNC began with a colourful and exciting orientation programme. As usual the Old Timers under the charismatic leadership of Sch. Biju Joy and Ginish won a basketball match against the New Comers. This year, Kerala Province is blessed with only one new member i.e. Sch. Jose Vallanattu who is part of the theologian's community and took admission for M.Ph. Kudos to Rajesh for being elected as the Class Coordinator of second year B. Th of JDV, Saji as the Chief of Social Wing Coordinator and Anil as the Beadle of theologians of DNC. Sch. Manesh is the new Province Coordinator. Fr VC George was with us for a couple of weeks teaching Symbolic Logic in JDV. We were also enriched by the presence Fr Rachans who paid a quick visit to DNC from Mumbai.

FROM JAIPUR

I have taken over as the Principal of St Xavier's College Jaipur on 4 June 2010. We are starting five courses this year, namely, B. Com, BBA, BCA, BA (Eco & Eng). Rajasthan University has given affiliation a week ago. The Staff selection is already done. Admissions to the various courses are going on. We plan to start the classes on 12 July. My postal address is: St Xavier's College, Jaipur 302001. Phone (Res) 0141 2374933 (Off) 0141 2371290 (Mob) 09460003587

FROM BHUBANESWAR

I was away for few days in Bihar and Jharkhand to introduce the Silo Method of Anaerobic Recycling of Bio-degradables (SMARB) in five places. Later I attended a three week Management Development Programme on Agribusiness at the Indian Institute of management, Lucknow. I was one of the resource person for another three week Management Development Programme for the Assistant Managers of West Bengal Electricity Board and three day training Programme on Community Managed Disaster Reduction both held at XIMB. Bhubaneswar is in the grip of severe summer heat while there was also a threat from the recent cyclone 'Laila' but it fizzled out before reaching the Orissa coast to the relief of every one and ended up in a cool and refreshing rain.

FROM GERMANY

The academic year has come to an end with a Holy Mass followed by barbeque and get together at Clapham community. The alluring exhibition on the Indian Portrait of 1560–1860 enamored the crowd in the National Portrait Gallery in London. I left for Germany on 15 June for learning German and am staying with Mr Hermann and family in Olpe. The multi-coloured Schutzenfest had an invigorating effect on the people of Olpe. The Soziales Forum in Siegen Dekanat was a striking pastoral experience in the German context. Rt Rev. Dr Manfred Grothe, the auxiliary bishop of Paderborn archdiocese, led us in liturgy and reflection. I was given a very warm welcome by the Sankt Georgen Jesuit community in Frankfurt and Mr Thomas Kallepallil and family, the younger brother of our Provincial.

FROM XIAMEN, P R C

Here I am back again in familiar surroundings among friends and former students. I arrived on a direct flight from TAIPEI on my three-score-and-tenth Birthday, with a Business Visa of 2 months, since a Tourist Visa is only for 15 days and since, if I had shown the Official Letter of Invitation, it would have been considered an Invitation to Work. A Work Visa can only be issued in New Delhi! So, I have come here as an Education Consultant of Fu Jen Catholic University, Taipei. The catch is that before the first 30 days are over, I must quit the country and then re-enter for another 30 days. I will go and enjoy a weekend with Ours in Macau and HongKong. These are the "games" that Travel Agents and Governments "play" and our George Kandathil (Sr) will be interested! The first thing I noticed is the number of new buildings that have come up during the past year, the rise in prices and the growing sense of prosperity.

I am here with 2 young Americans due for Theology in September. We will take the first 2 weeks of English classes for Junior School English Teachers and the next 2 weeks for Middle & High School English Teachers, all this under the auspices of Xiamen Academy of Education Science.

In Taipei, Rubil and all his companions (young and old) have gone to a Country Resort for their Holidays. Having got a solid grounding in Mandarin Chinese, the international batch of four will some time in August proceed to Beijing for their second year of Chinese Language and Chinese Culture studies.

FROM ROMA, BELLARMINO

On the 26 June I finished my first year in Rome. That day also happened to be the end of my academic year with the final comprehensive oral exam. The schedule of the first year was hectic with numerous exams and other activities. The University of Gregorian, specially our faculty, makes it sure that all the students go through sufficient hard work. The first hand experience of the four seasons of nature was something different to me, including the snowfall of October 12, a very rare phenomenon in Rome. Only the passage from the winter to the spring gave me some difficulties in the beginning. I could visit some of the big cities and centers of Italy like Venice, Milan, Padua, Florence and Verona in connection with the apostolate and studies. The parish ministry in the suburb of Rome keeps me in touch with the pastoral dimension of the priestly life. The visit of Fr Joe Kallepallil, Provincial, was graceful moments. He made a presentation of the current status of the Province in the group of South Asian Jesuits and invited all to our Province on the occasion of the Jubilee Year. The presence of Frs. Raphael Thottan and Benoy also was an occasion of happiness. I begin my summer programmes on 3 July which begins with a course of German in Innsbruck.

FROM JAPAN

Fr Sali Tharappel took his final vows along with another Japanese Jesuit in Tokyo on 21 June. The Kerala Jesuits in Tokyo had a small gathering to congratulate Fr Sali on the occasion. He is now busy with his lectures at Sophia University and also conducts vocation promotion programmes for young people. Thomas Njaralamkulath began his Post Graduate studies in English Literature in Sophia University from April 2010. John Puthenkalam keeps himself busy with his university lectures and preparation classes for adult baptisms. We thank God for having him here and pray more blessings on him.

I finished my regency in Hiroshima's Elizabeth University of Music and moved to Tokyo in April. One and a half year of being with the Japanese university students gave me a lot of experiences to remember for a life time. Though teaching Humanities in Japanese was really an uphill job in the beginning I really enjoyed the company of students. In fact this atmosphere of friendship and freedom helped me to overcome the language barriers to a great extent. Some of them became so friendly that they wanted to visit Kerala and my hometown. During my stay in Hiroshima I also had the opportunity to serve the Sunday liturgy for the English community at Hiroshima Cathedral. I also found time to work with the youth group of the Hiroshima Diocese. Above all I enjoyed the company of my fellow Jesuits here who were a total of 8 people from 6 different countries. Saying goodbye to Hiroshima was really a sad experience for me. After coming to Tokyo I have started my Theology studies at Sophia University since April 2010.

I had an opportunity to participate in the 51st International Speech Contest in Japanese conducted on 5 May. This is a prestigious speech contest in Japan for foreigners in which every year twelve contestants are selected from more than a hundred applicants. Though I was not able to win the first prize I was able to enter in the circle of twelve best speakers. These selected twelve speeches will be broadcast on NHK, the Japanese national television channel on 18 July.
