FOR YOUR INFORMATION

NEW JESUIT HOUSE

The Jesuit mission at Neyyattinkara is blessed with a new house at Poozhanad. Kerala Jesuit Society bought 80 cents of land with a two-storey building at Poozhanad, just 800 meters away from Loyola School, Mukumdara.

JEMAI FESTIVAL

The forthcoming 2nd JEMAI National Tribal festival will be held at Eachome TUDI-Sarvodaya premises on 6-9 December 2012. About 350 delegates from 14 Jesuit Provinces are expected to participate in this festival. All those interested are welcome to join us to be part of this gathering.

Fr Baby Chalil

NEW BOOKS

Fr Kurien, at 80 plus, besides teaching at JDV and giving different theology courses outside, is collecting and publishing Fr Samuel Rayan's selected writings (six volumes of c.350 pages average, costing Rs c. 250). Our major communities would do well to acquire the entire set. St Paul's is publishing these volumes at their own cost. The volumes are available with 30% reduction through Fr Kurien. Fr Kottukapally (Mob:9495318415) may be contacted for further information.

FROM OUR INSTITUTIONS

CHRIST HALL, CALICUT

Fr Provincial attended the JCSA meeting in Goa and was in the Theologates of Delhi and Pune for the annual visitation. In his absence Fr Sunny Kunnappallil represented Kerala Province in the CRI Major superiors' meeting held in Hyderabad. Christuraja school witnessed the first Alumni gathering in which more than 200 people attended. The old students paid special respect to the retired teachers of the school. The Christuraja Parish beside the Kannur Bypass in Malaparamba had a major touch up and facelift this month. The parish brought out the Annual Parish Address Directory. Fr Minister is back to his busy schedule after his annual retreat which was concluded on his B'day. The Prefect of Health, Br Michael is at present in RCC, TVM, taking special care of Sch. Jose Vallanattu. Theology student Sch. Joseph Mathew reached Christ Hall for a short rest in his new convalescence home. Br Abraham reached his new community in Kalady after his much laudable service as farm-in-charge. There was a special feature on the television about his agrohomoopathy experiments on plantain trees. Br George Vattukulam rejoined the community after his meeting in Kathmandu and is now dealing with the agrohomoopathy enquiries from the media and other interested parties.

LOYOLA, ALUVA

October was an eventful month for us at Loyola. We, the novices, started the month with a week-long Dhyan Sadhana, under the direction of Fr Joe Pithekar of Bombay Province. Fr Pithekar, an experienced spiritual master, skillfully guided us in the art of meditation. It was a wonderful learning experience for us, mere beginners in spiritual life. We are deeply grateful to Fr Pithekar for travelling all the way from Manikpur, ignoring the long distance and his indifferent health, and offering us this precious gift. On 14 October we had a special celebration in honour of Fr Jacob Madukakuzhy, on his return to Loyola after his treatment in Kozhikode. It was also a delayed birthday celebration. This month we were honoured by the visits of quite a few illustrious Jesuits. Frs John Vattanky and E.J. Thomas were with us for their annual retreats. Their presence gave us great spiritual encouragement. Other distinguished guests included Fr Sunny Kunnappallil, Fr Thomas Anthraper, Fr Jose Panadan, Fr Varghese Paul (both from Gujarat Province) and Dn Rajesh Punchathalackal. Deacon Rajesh reawakened in us great ecological fervour, inspiring us to make our house and compound plastic free. We got a golden opportunity to try our culinary skills, (in selected areas, of course,) as our cook, Mr Kunjumon, was on leave for two weeks. We were also privileged to attend the Pontifical High Mass, marking the conclusion of the "Post Centenary Silver Jubilee" celebrations of the Archdiocese of Verapoly. Participating in a Eucharistic celebration with so many bishops, priests and the other faithful was to us a deep and joyful spiritual experience. Our Long Retreat is scheduled to begin by the middle of November. Now we are preparing ourselves for this great event. Please do remember us in your valuable prayers during the days of our retreat.

SARVODAYA, EACHOME

Our school has been chosen as the venue for the Sub-district School Kalolsavam from November 14 to 17. 132 schools are expected to participate in various cultural competitions. Mrs Rosakutty Chacko, the Kerala Women's Commission chairperson has agreed to inaugurate the Kalolsavam and Kumari Jayalakshmi, Minister for schedule & tribe, has consented to be the chief guest for the valedictory function. Many dignitaries including the District Collector and District Panchayath President will attend the various functions. Our students bagged many prizes in sub-district Work Experience and Science Mela. We got the overall title in the work experience exhibition. Fr Baby Chalil returned from Germany hail and hearty after a month long visit. We had 10 days of rosary devotion in the house chapel and many of our neighbors attended it with great zeal. We celebrated the golden Jubilee of Br Sebastian Valiamattam on a grand scale in Pachilakad. Fr Joseph Kallepallil, the provincial, was the main celebrant for the well arranged Eucharistic celebration. After the Holy Mass a short meeting was arranged followed by agape. Many neighboring priests, religious and his close relatives also participated in the celebration. Fr Sony deserves special appreciation for having arranged it in a most fitting manner. Fr Provincial made his annual visitation and it was a grace-filled moment for all of us. Fr Provincial was given a grand reception in the school and he inaugurated the school Kalolsavam and school sports of the LP section.

SAMEEKSHA AND ATMAMITRA, KALADY

Br Abraham Mannamkary joined the community to be in charge of the farm. You can expect the Sameeksha campus to become greener and more fruit-bearing in future. Fr George Nedungatt left for Bangalore to be on the teaching faculty of Dharmaram Vidya Kshethra. A group of 15 Malaysians – Hindus and Christians – made a retreat with the Bhagavad Gita under the guidance of Fr Sebastian Painadath at Sameeksha. The local catholic community had a ten-day rosary devotion programme coordinated by Fr K.C. Thomas on our campus. The tenth batch of Jnanasameeksha – Theology for the laity – received the JDV certificates, and the 12th batch with 24 participants got started. The present and the past students of Jnanasameeksha, in all about 120, took part in a seminar on the Proliferation of Criminality in Kerala. A group of spiritual seekers is making the Vipassana Meditation Course at Sameeksha. Sebastian Painadath also addressed an inter-religious group on the Spirituality of the Upanishads. Fr Sunny Kunnappallil guided the Community Building Session for Sameeksha Community in a very cordial atmosphere.

The highlight of the month for Atmamitra was the residential programme conducted for over 100 children at St Joseph's School, Kalpetta, and the special programme benefiting 230 students held at Punnathara-Vellappally Church, in Changanacherry Archdiocese, where Sch. Shubin assisted Fr Toby. Thanks to Fr C.T. Jose and the Edathua community, Atmamitra has had multiple entries in Edathua. It began with a one day programme for the St Aloysius High School Boys and then a Career Guidance programme for our ITI students and later a special address to the Sunday School students of St George Forane Church. Atmamitra has appointed two full time counselors, Miss Anu Thomas, an MSW graduate from Loyola Trivandrum and Sr Judit, CPS. Both of them are undergoing training at SRC for a month. Many students come to Atmamitra or contact Toby in person, over the phone or through e-mail seeking inspiration and sometimes consolation. Toby also guided a retreat for 22 Scholastics of Our Lady of Mercy Congregation at Sannidhana Ashram, Illithode.

Fr Toby

A very personal request from Fr Toby on behalf of Atmamitra

All of ours are requested to contribute generously to this novel ministry of the province. Here is an easy, simple and creative way to do that. Kindly gather all the coins (old Indian, old and new Foreign and Indian memorial coins) and foreign or old Indian currency notes lying unused in your shelves and drawers and hand them over to Toby at the earliest. These, he believes, can be converted into a permanent income generating platform (through exhibitions in educational institutions). It would be welcome, if ours in educational institutions can collect them from our students to support this noble cause. This income may be directed to pay the salary of the counsellors appointed at Atmamitra thus benefiting hundreds of students across the state and even beyond. If the collection is quite big, Toby will personally collect it from the respective places and persons.

Viswa Malayala Maholsavam was a great event of the very recent past that was held at the state capital with the President of India as its inaugurator. It was well represented by many luminaries of Malayalam literature. Among them Fr Adappur stood out in a remarkable way. Perhaps he had been the most elderly literary personality to present a spectacular paper on "Theological Perspectives on the History of Malayalam Literature." The presentation was attended by a large audience at Kanakakkunnu. Fr Adappur organized a symposium on "the Unbridled price hike of the Essential Commodities" under the auspices of Newman Association. Mr Joseph Vazhakkam, M.L.A. was the main speaker. Fr. Mathew Nampiaparambil and all who knew him were pleasantly surprised to see many newspapers including the national dailies carrying his photograph with a child on his lap joyfully writing on the dry rice spread in a plate. It was the ezhuthiniruthal (ceremonial initiation to writing) held at St Antony's shrine, Kaloor. There were as many as eight priests in the ceremony and all the lens men found his face exceptional and worth framing. Congrats Fr Nampi! Let there be many more such occasions! The good tradition of growing some vegetables over the terrace and in the little space available in the campus is continued by Frs. Nampiaparambil and Roy with enthusiasm and commitment. Their hard work has reflected in our house accounts with a notable difference in the kitchen expenses of the month. Fr Roy Thottathil attended a seminar on "Art, communication and Faith Formation" in NBCLC, Bangalore. It was organized by the Christian Art Association under the Media Commission of CBCI. Fr. Roy gave a presentation on "Art workshops and Spiritual Formation" in the seminar and it was well received and appreciated. Now he is busy with the preparation of the next volume of the Kerala Jesuit.

The consistent school visits and follow-ups for the circulation promotion of Snehasena by Fr Vincent have started giving some good effects. The number of copies of Snehasena has gone to 1,25,000. Recently he attended the JESCOM coordinators' meeting at Jaipur.

S.M FARM, PARIYARAM

Golden Jubilee of the entrance to the Society of Br Abraham Madathiparambil who was also former Principal of Nirmala ITI (Private) for a long time, was celebrated in collaboration with Alumni Association. Over 200 people including former and present students, staff and several Jesuits took part. Fr Sunny Kunnappallil inaugurated the day-long function and Fr Jose Mathew, Province Coordinator of Jesuit Alumni Association, gave the key-note address. The notable attraction of the celebration was 'Singarimelam' by a professional troupe led by former students. A delicious 'biryani' was served to all. Fr Sunil participated in the national meeting of the Jesuit technical institutions held at Sevasi Technical Institute, Baroda. The annual two-day 'Sevanavaram' of the ITI was a good occasion for the staff and students to clean up the surroundings and the side along the National High Way.

Fr Mathew Aerthayil

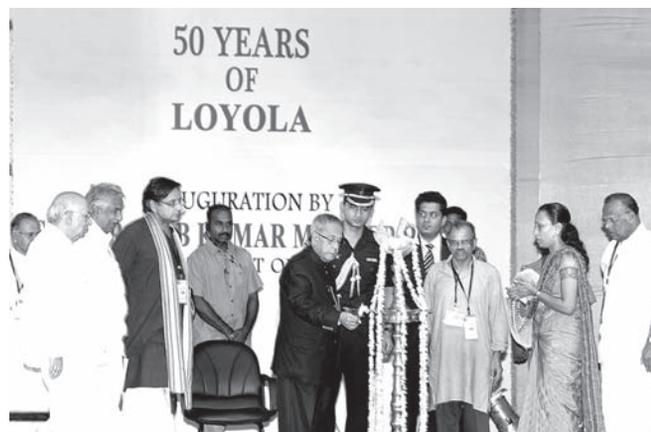

SAMANVAYA – KANJIRAPALLY

Good showers continued to bless us for the last two weeks of October. Fr Kuriakose has undergone surgery for his cataract. Fr George Sebastian gave a half-day programme on value education and media awareness to the parents of AKJM Higher Secondary School. He was also generous enough to spend a little time with the candidates helping them to approach the mass media with a critical mind. Now the candidates are able to appreciate films in a better way. Sch. Shibirin joined the Athmamithra team for a two days' programme in Ettumanoor during the pooja holidays. This month offered a few colourful moments for the students of AKJM. A good number of students participated in many items during the 'sports day' of this year. AKJM School secured the overall championship for games in the sub-district level. As part of the 'postal day' celebration in the school, Fr Wilson organized a stamp exhibition. He is present everywhere in the campus with his fine touch of photography. Fr Vattanky is away, making his retreat.

LOYOLA, TRIVANDRUM

The highlight of the month was the grand curtain-raiser to the golden jubilee celebrations of the Loyola College of Social Sciences. We were privileged to have with us the President of India, Shri Pranab Kumar Mukherjee, to light the lamp and inaugurate the year-long festivity. Speaking after the inauguration, he called for more active involvement and lead roles for womenfolk in the state. An array of VVIPs including the Governor, Shri H R Bharadwaj, the Chief Minister Shri Oommen Chandy, Union Ministers Shri K C Venugopal and Shri Shashi Tharoor, State Minister and ex-alumni, Shri K C Joseph, Archbishop of Trivandrum, Dr M Soosai Pakiyam, MLAs, and other dignitaries in the conducive and the state-of-the-art ambience of the Loyola School Indoor Stadium, etched out a memorable programme of its kind in the minds of the 2000 plus audience including students – present and past – well-wishers, and other guests. It was indeed a rewarding experience for all those who toiled to make this solemn event a reality. Even the weather was favorable, rendering us a fine evening in every aspect!

VIDYANIKETAN, TRIVANDRUM

At the beginning of this month, we had a three-day course on Time Management by Fr Francis Xavier, director of Loyola Engineering College in Chennai. He showed us how to make the best use of time. "Time Management is not managing time but managing myself", he said. On 30 October of this month we had the golden opportunity to see the President of India, Sri Pranab Mukherjee and a galaxy of political leaders when they came to inaugurate the Golden Jubilee celebration of our Loyola College.

VIDYA JYOTI, DELHI

October was eventful at Vidyajyoti. On the first day of the month the second semester started with fresh verve and vigor. The visitation of Provincial, Fr Joseph Kallepallil, was a heartwarming experience. He was with us for three days. The presence of Fr Jose Thachil during the gathering doubled our joy. Vidyajyoti College hosted a national seminar on the occasion of Platinum Jubilee celebration of Vidyajyoti Theological Journal (VJTR) upon the theme The Role of Critical Thinking in Religion. The entire college had an active involvement in the programme. The second year theologians screened their theological project upon the theme Religions and Symbols: Use and Abuse titled "ta: Heartbeat of Cosmos." The 50 mts play powerfully communicated the message that idols should die and symbols should rise. Congrats to Prince Clarence who prepared the script and directed the play. Sch. Sanil represented Vidyajyoti Theologate in the North India Theology Students' Conference (NITSC) held at Pfutsero, Nagaland. 80 delegates from 22 colleges discussed the theme "Significance of Contextual Theology in India." Congrats, Sanil. Fr P.T. Mathew attended the ITA (Indian Theological Association) seminar held at Jalandar. Sch. Raju was down with Dengu fever and was admitted in hospital for two days. Vidyajyoti family lost Fr Desiderio Pinto (PUNE) on 27, October. He was suffering from leukemia and was under treatment for seven months. We fondly remember with profound gratitude his contribution to the college and to the community. Archbishop Vincent Consessao presided over the requiem Mass on Oct 31.

DE NOBILI COLLEGE, PUNE

The sudden showers in Pune made the month of October pleasant along with a number of activities and events that kept up the spirit in DNC. The outset of the October was graced with the visitation of Fr POSA and Fr ADF. The interaction with them made us rooted in the awareness about the sense of universal society. Fr V.C. George left DNC having finished lecturing symbolic logic and formal logic to the philosophers at JDV. He was much appreciated by the students. It was an unforgettable and moving experience for the deacons when they bade good bye to the DNC and JDV. We enjoyed their presence and learned a lot from them and we thank our loving deacons for everything that they had been to us. As per the JDV schedule, we had semester exams. Fr Provincial's visit was an enriching moment for us and we are grateful to Fr Provincial for he was kind enough to put up with the inconveniences caused by our exams during his visitation. The exams left us with a long holiday that the first year philosophers went on tour to Ajanta and Ellora, while the second years went to Goa. Goa province was generous to accommodate us and took care of us very well. Fr Stephen had been out for a few days accompanying and guiding the spirituality students through different pilgrim centers in north India. The classes in J.D.V resumed on 31 October.

FROM LONDON

As the rush and surge of spring becomes a distant memory, the heady scents and dizzying colours of summer have faded, and the blaze of autumn colour vanished and the wind of Europe has stepped into the winter season. Now is the time to walk through the garden on a clear frosty morning, all wrapped up by the warm clothes. Winter is truly a glorious season but many tend to dread those cold months. As soon as the air turns cold, we find ourselves looking out through the window like a child watching for the first signs of snow. The temperature has dropped below 5 in London, the 'hottest city of Europe' As our lectures reached its full swing, hectic preparations for the assignments are going on. Tomson and Deepak, along with the first years, had an incredible opportunity to visit the British Museum as part of their Biblical foundation studies. The British Museum has some invaluable collections, numbering some eight million works and artefacts, originating from all continents, illustrating and documenting the story of human culture down the ages.

Sch. Santhosh is returning to the Province since his sickness is persisting. We think that the best care and support of our Mother House will facilitate his speedy recovery. "Holy Deacon" (Known in the Jesuit circle in London) Xavier is busy with his studies and diaconate ministries.

FROM YOGYAKARTA, INDONESIA

Classes in this new Assistency Juniorate are in full swing and all are keeping well and doing well. We have all just returned after the combined and joyful evening province celebration of the Feast of St Alphonsus Rodriguez, the Jubilarians of the Indonesian Province and the Profession of two Jesuits. One of those taking Last Vows was born a Muslim convert (now 46). He has added "Gandhi" to his name HARTONO. His Muslim Parents became Catholics after his Ordination in 2004. The celebration was held in the Retreat House in Klaten, which is about an hour's drive by van from here. There were over 150 Indonesian Jesuits present, as well as a lot of benefactors. Among the Jesuits present were 78-year old Julius Cardinal Darmaatmadja and 87-year old Fr Albert Rutten, the senior most Jesuit in the Province, who was a participant in the Mini-Sadhana Programme that was run by Roman Lewicki and me in De Nobili College, Pune. Both of them live in Emmaus Infirmary of the province, attached to the Novitiate, in this island of Java, about a 3-hour drive from here.

NATIONAL JESA MEET - GOA

JESA national meet was held at Xavier Retreat Centre, Goa, on 23 – 26 October 2012. There were 25 participants representing all provinces and regions, national centers and SJES, Rome. The agenda of the meeting was sharing and reflection on JESA activities of each Province, deliberation and discussion on GIAN, SAPI and SJES, group discussion on lay leadership and partnership and personal sharing on the struggles and success stories of CSAs. For the next financial year we have planned for zonal level consultation and workshop on current social issues, social analysis and sharing of field experiences. The sharing of SJES Secretary Fr Patxi and his assistant Fr Xavier Jayaraj added our zeal to commit ourselves for the cause of the poor and marginalized. The meeting called for a change of mindset in our approach to Social Action both in its structure and strategies and to seek wider collaboration and partnership with Jesuits and non-Jesuits who share a higher vision and goal in life. The natural beauty of Baga Beach and the green forest of Xavier Retreat Centre made our stay a memorable one.

FROM THE CURIA, ROME

Year of Faith. The Year of the faith was officially opened on October 11. It will last until November 24 2014 (2013?). To mark the occasion, Father General wrote a letter to the Major Superiors of the Society in which he notes: "With gratitude to the Holy Father and in communion with the whole Church, we welcome this call to focus more explicitly on the gift of faith, and the witness and service we give to it. We are aware that, in today's world, 'a profound crisis of faith . . . has affected many people.' (Porta Fidei, 2). As the reports of many Procurators indicated and as I pointed out in my recent de Statu Societatis, we ourselves have not been unaffected by this crisis...With this letter then, I wish to invite the whole Society to take to heart the call of the Holy Father and to seek ways of participating meaningfully and with greater personal and communal engagement in this special year for the Church. It is my hope that every Jesuit spends some time - perhaps even his annual Retreat - in prayer and reflection on the meaning, implications and calls of this year."

He then requests all Major Superiors to invite communities "to dedicate a good number of their regular meetings to prayer and reflection together", and he provides some points for this reflection. He ends the letter: "Aware that we are always called to grow in faith, this year we make our own in a special way the prayer in Mark 9, 24: 'I do believe, but help the little faith I have.' Let us pray that the Lord may make the Year of Faith a time of abundant grace and new life for the whole Church and for our least Society."

Canonization of Fr Jacques Berthieu. On October 21 Fr Jacques Berthieu (1838-1896), a French Jesuit, missionary and martyr in Madagascar, will be declared a Saint. To commemorate the occasion, Father General wrote a letter to the whole Society from which we quote below. After recalling some significant ecclesial events of this year, such as the Synod of Bishops on the New Evangelization and the Year of Faith, Father General adds: "for the Society of Jesus, this year 2012 is also marked by the Congregation of Procurators which took place last July in Nairobi. The apostolic vitality of the provinces of Africa and Madagascar that are part of JESAM and our renewed awareness of sentire cum Ecclesia invite us to receive with fervor the witness of Jacques Berthieu."

After recalling the main events of the Saint's life and remembering his martyrdom, Father Nicolás highlights some features of his life as a missionary, a man of prayer, and a pastor. He continues: "The total and irreversible gift of his life in the following of Christ was at the heart of his commitment. In the midst of trials, he retained his sense of humor, and remained affable, humble and helpful. He liked to quote the Gospel passage: "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but rather of those who make one lose one's soul" (cf. Mt 10:28). In his instructions, he often spoke of the resurrection of the dead. The faithful remembered the following sentence: "Even if you are eaten by a crocodile, you will rise again." Was this a premonition of his own end? In fact, after his death, two inhabitants of Ambiatibe dragged his body to the river Mananara, a short distance away from the place of his martyrdom, and his remains disappeared."

Jesuit Commons Meets in Rome. In 2010, Jesuit Commons, a collaborative effort of Jesuit educational and social service networks, partnered with Jesuit Refugee Service (JRS) in establishing Jesuit Commons: Higher Education at the Margins (JC:HEM), a pilot programme that has already offered online higher education to more than 1,000 refugee students in Kenya, Malawi and Syria. Hands-on support is offered by JRS field staff, with lectures and materials provided online by academics from Jesuit institutions in the US. From 5 to 7 November, JC:HEM will hold its annual meeting at the Curia in Rome. The focus of the three-day event will be to review the 2012 activities, to establish an academic board, to draft a 2013 action plan, and to consider proposals for expansion. During the meeting, participants will explore proposals for expanding JC:HEM to Afghanistan and Sri Lanka (in partnership with Jesuit universities in India), and to Chad with the help of the UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR). The annual meeting will also focus on ways to encourage more Jesuit universities to respond to the higher-education needs of many displaced people living on the margins of society.

Secretariat for Social Justice and Ecology. From the 10 to 14 of November, the leaders of the five global networks of Ignatian advocacy will meet in Rome. The meeting will consider the following issues: peace and human rights, ecology, the right to education, migration, and the management of natural and mining resources. Over the last two years, these networks have drawn up position papers on the particular area for which each is responsible. They identified the works which the Society performs in these fields, and they worked towards an agreement on the future development plan of such networks. During the coming meeting, they will evaluate the work already done, and will try to find ways to enhance the efforts of each network.
